HR.info - Farewell after 11 years of service

HumanitarianResponse.info (HR.info) is going offline after serving the humanitarian community for 11 years.

Released in 2012, HR.info led with the goal of creating an online space for humanitarian coordination. HR.info was upgraded, redesigned and rebranded in 2022 due to changes in technology and user needs.

Years of hard work are not lost!

All of the active HR.info content was migrated to the new platform - ReliefWeb Response - by May 2023. We have since worked with Archive-It - the leading web archiving service for collecting and accessing cultural heritage on the web - to capture an online copy of HR.info.

You can find a the archived copy here:

<https://wayback.archive-it.org/21210/20230626152423/https://www.humanitarianresponse.info/>

Redirects are in place to take visitors directly from HR.info to ReliefWeb Response. We will discontinue the use of the info@humanitarianresponse.info support email address. You can now reach us at support@unocha.org. Google Workspaces using an @humanitarianresponse.info email address will not be impacted.

Questions or concerns can be sent to support@unocha.org.
