

105,000
Email subscribers

2,500
Sources

30,000
Site visitors per day

2006 – 10 years

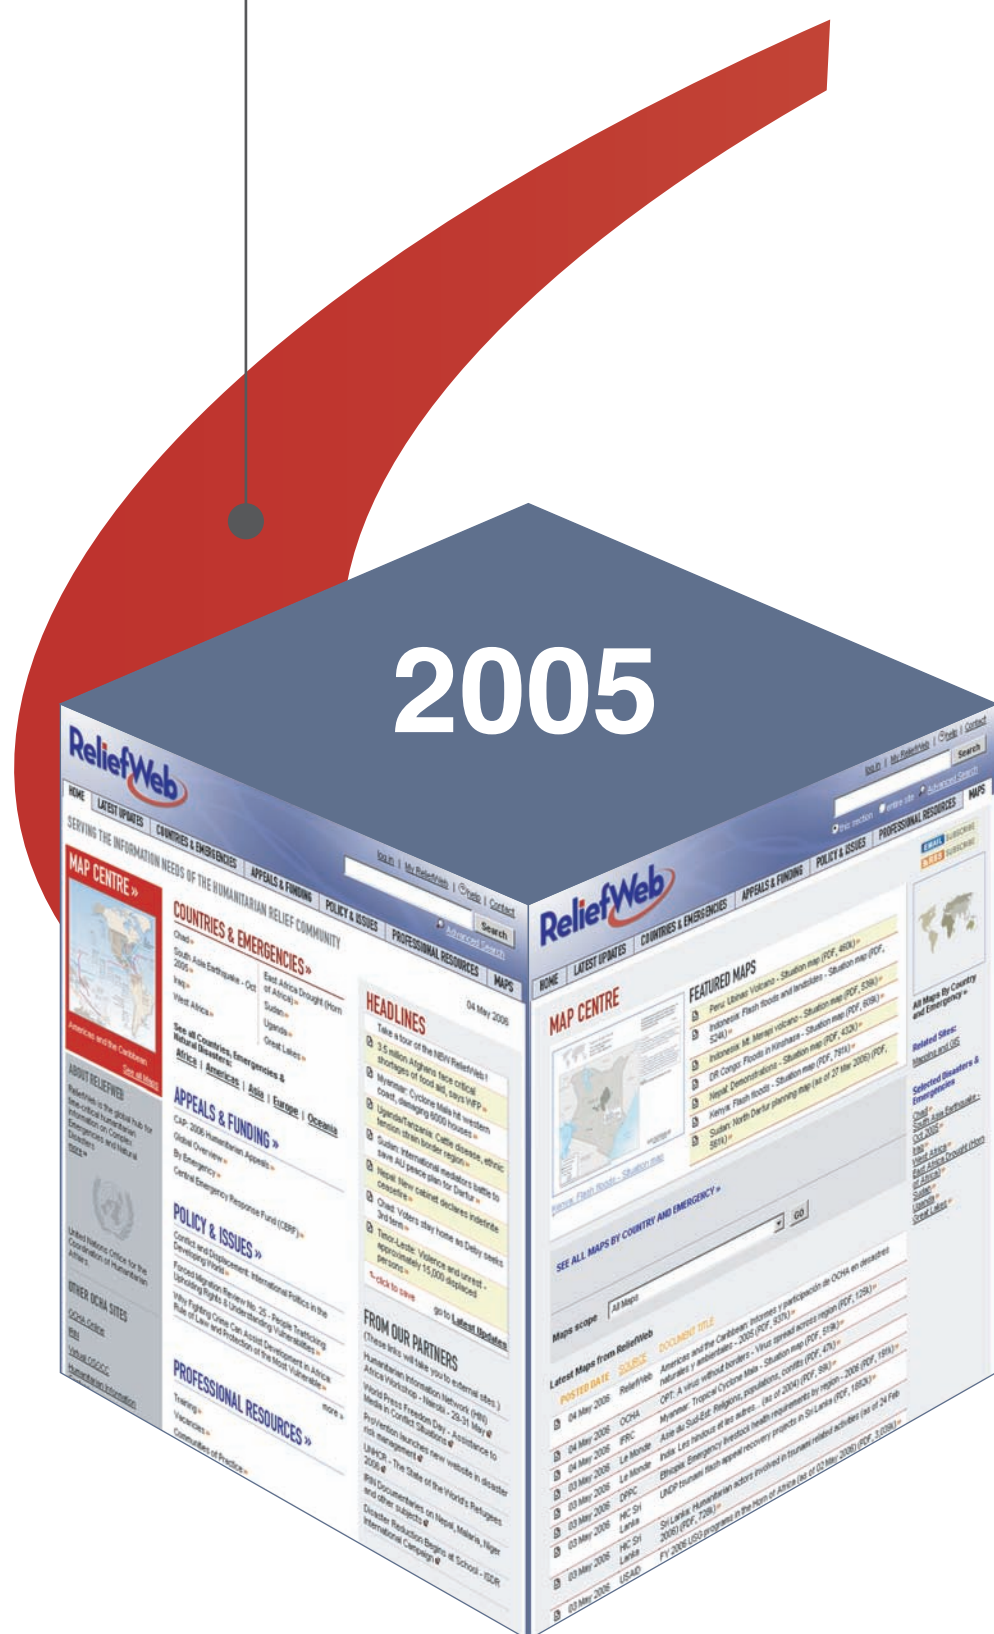

ReliefWeb launches public RSS feeds and tests daily Podcast of headline news.
Up to 300 documents per day added to site, covering over 80 emergencies.
1,570 emergencies covered since 1996.
250,000 documents posted since 1996.
Humanitarian information network conference held in Africa.

Pre-1996

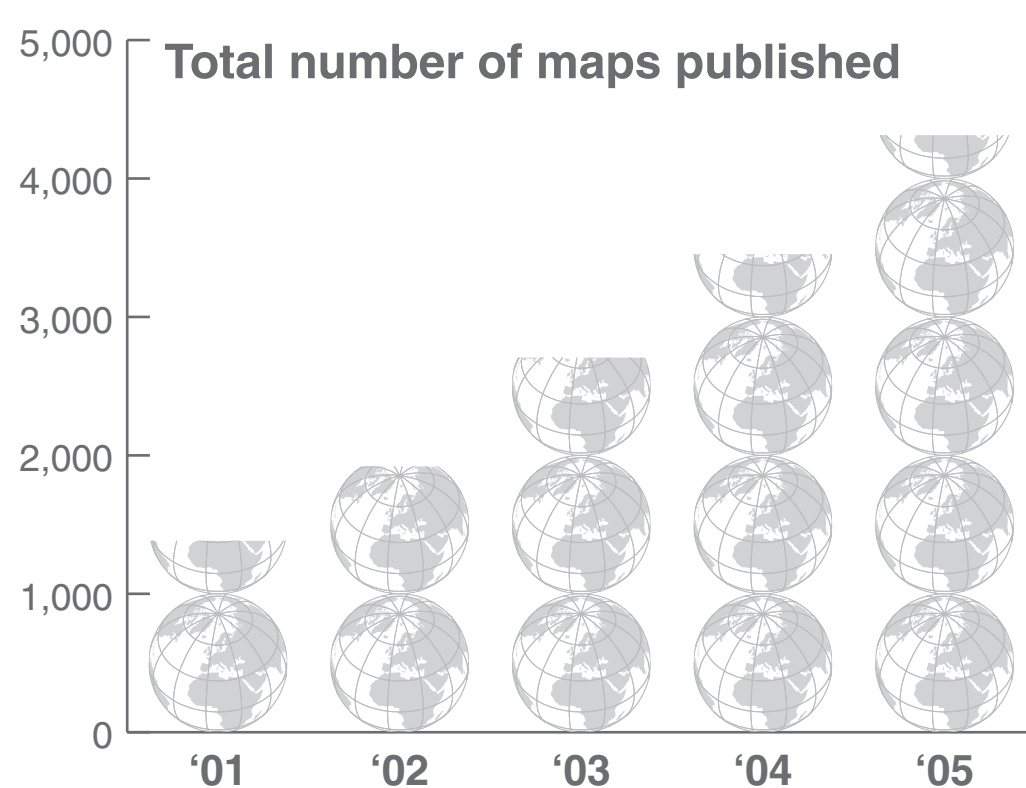

Prototypes developed: ReliefNet, Humanitarian Crisis Web.
Original sites contain Situation Reports, Appeals, links to country information.

ReliefWeb

10 years of service to the humanitarian community

2005 – Launch of 2nd redesigned site
Major redesign improves site usability, highlights lesser-known site content, helps combat information overload.
New features include My ReliefWeb, Documents by Sector, 'Who's Working' pages, Communities of Practice, Filter tools.
Humanitarian information network conference held in Latin America and Caribbean.

2003 - 2004

Comprehensive review of user interface and technical infrastructure begins.
Training and Library sections upgraded.
Humanitarian information network conference held in Asia-Pacific.

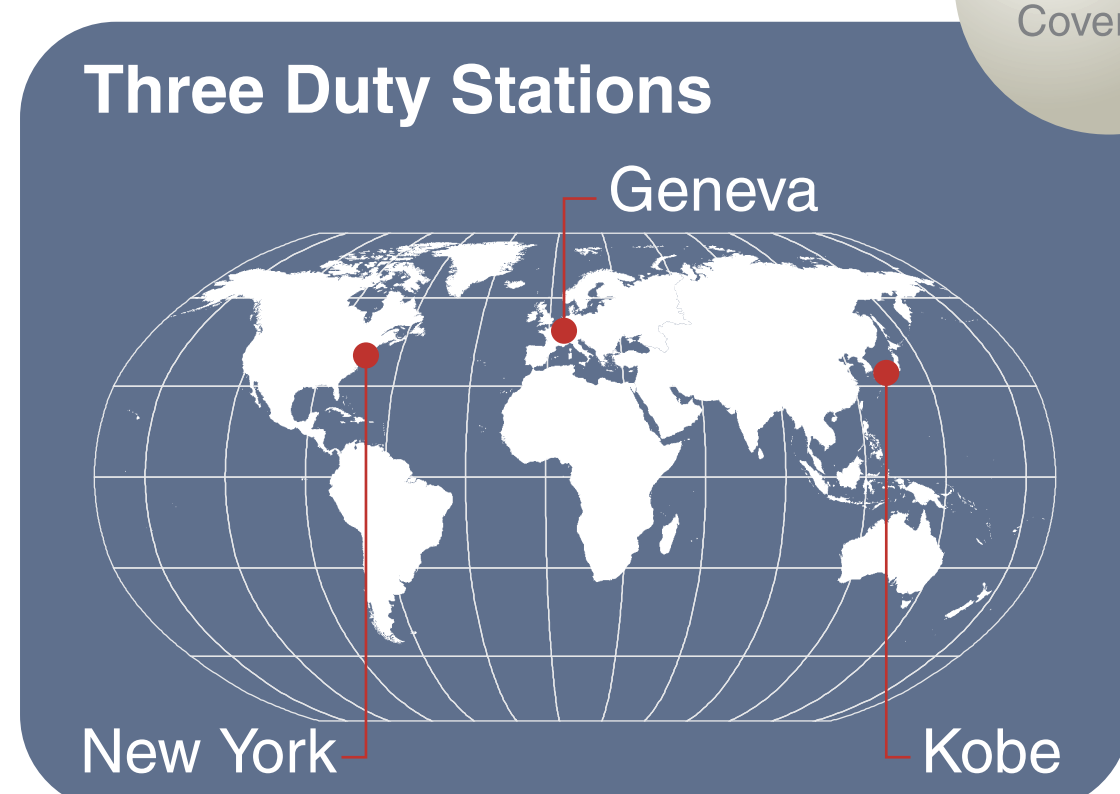

2000 – Launch of 1st redesigned site
Major rebranding exercise results in new logo and visual design.
Country listings, Headlines, Advanced Search added.

2001 – Kobe office opens

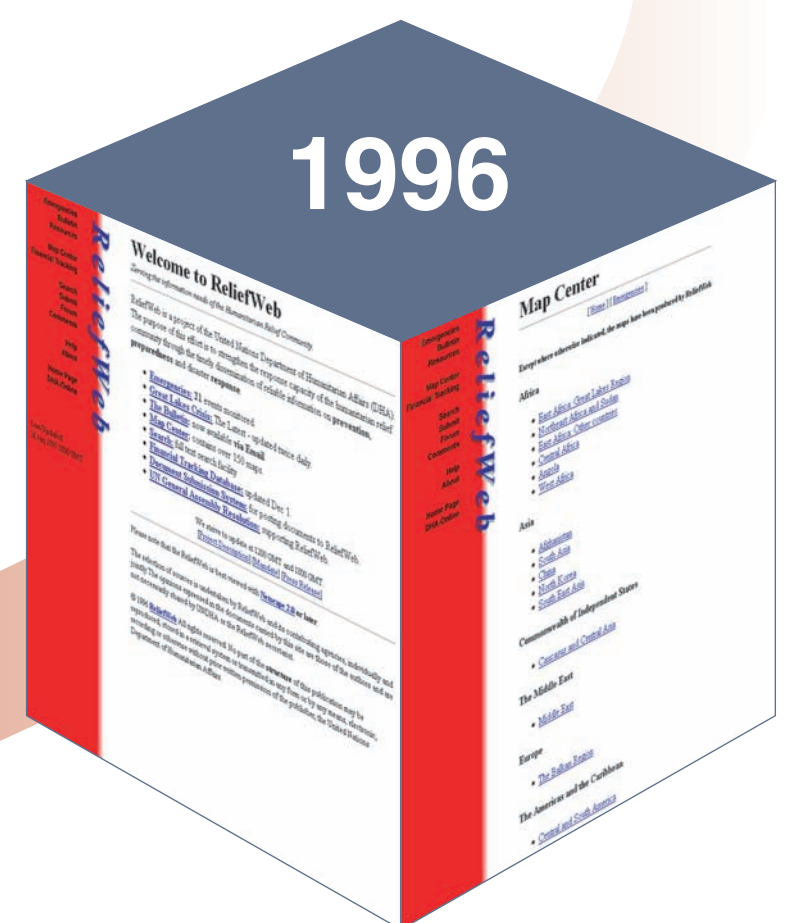

Map Centre, Vacancies, Contact Directory sections redesigned.
ReliefWeb via Email activated.
24-hour coverage starts.

2002

ReliefWeb begins content feeds to partner sites.
Geneva symposium held on best practices in humanitarian information exchange.

24-Hour
Coverage

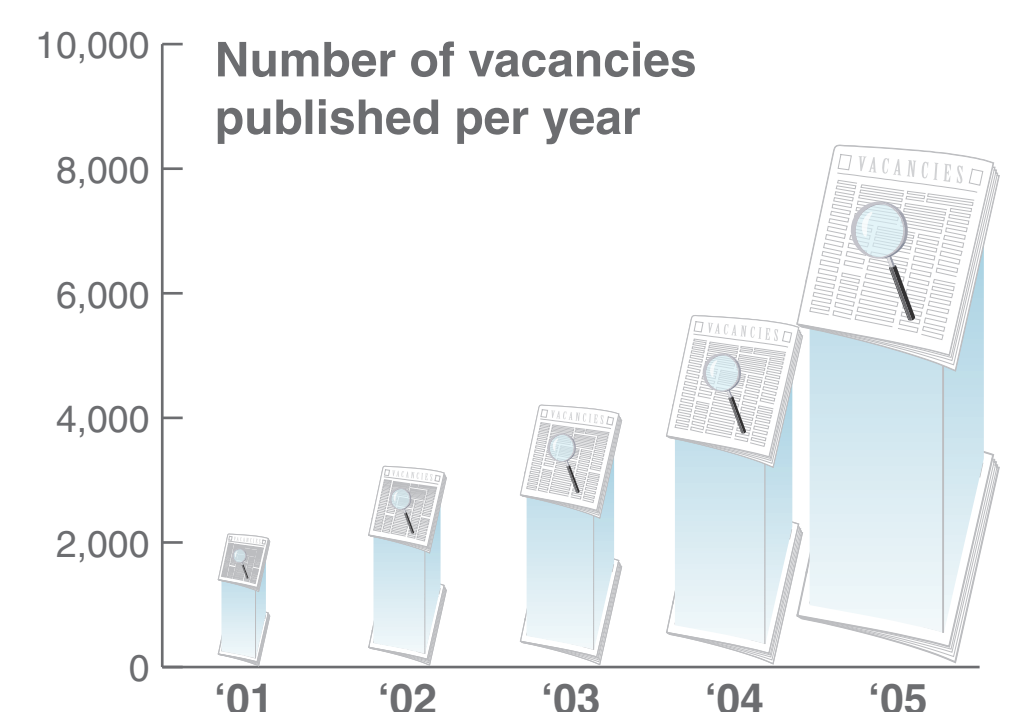

1996 – Launch of ReliefWeb

Site officially launched October 1996.
Average of 25 documents published per day.
Site includes documents, maps, tracking of funding appeals.
10 complex emergencies, 10 natural disasters covered.

1997

Library, Background, Training, Emergency Archives added.
Publication of response documents automated.

1998 - 1999

Vacancies and Contact Directory sections added.